IMPACT OFFICERS SMITH AND SPENCER

The statistics for all crime in Citrus Heights is down from last year at this time, with the exception of DUIs, which are up. Service calls were 26 and collisions were 26.

A. PROGRAM/PRESENTATION - CITRUS HEIGHTS MANAGER, ASH FEENEY

Mr. Feeney is a Californian, who grew up in Modesto. After college, travel, and marriage he went to work for Sac City in planning. He moved on to housing development and commercial construction. After working in the private sector for 10 years, he joined the City of Davis as assistant city manager. Mr. Feeney lives in Fair Oaks, but spends time, shops, and interacts with his family in Citrus Heights. Becoming city manager seemed like the perfect "fit" and opportunity. He is friendly, positive and optimistic in his management style. His goals for himself and the city are:

1. To build relationships with the residents, City Council and surrounding communities
2. Gain an understanding of the infrastructure, finances, policies, and regulations
3. Provide opportunities for growth, starting with Sunrise Tomorrow
4. Create an environment of service and increase fun city activities
5. Communicate more with City Council and encourage neighborhood associations

B. COMMITTEE AND PROJECT REPORTS

1. Arcade Creek Trail Project, Auburn Trail tree work, weed control and benches are proceeding.
2. CONNECT displayed their calendar and distributed flyers. Glenn encouraged all to use the Citrus Heights Website and read The Sentinel to keep up on Citrus Heights happenings.

3. CH Development and Planning – Dave reported the same 6 project are approved and in progress.
 4. Bill reported that he is working with the Park District to repair the gazebo at C-C. This service project will happen in April.
 5. Kathy Morris reported that C-C has been reserved for National Night Out August 2, 2022.
 6. Mike reported Mesa Verde has finished the first draft of the flyer for our neighborhood association. He will continue to work on it.
 7. Miscellaneous City concerns/projects:
 - Flickering streetlights at Old Auburn and Fair Oaks
 - Street construction on Greenback and Fair Oaks
 - Intersection repainting at Sylvan Corners Appreciated
 - Traffic issues at Oak and Canelo Hills
 - Traffic concerns on Hanson now and with school construction
- C. ANNOUNCEMENTS – Next Meeting 4/19/2022 with Homeless Navigator Gabby Yost.
May17, 2022 our guest will be Debra Nathan, Code Enforcement.
