Super Bowl LVII is a Win-Win When You Plan Ahead: Score a Sober Ride Home

Citrus heights, Calif. – The Citrus heights Police Department is reminding football fans that there’s no “DUI” in team. If you’re heading out to a Super Bowl party and you plan on drinking, make sure you stick to the “Go Safely” game plan and choose a sober way to go.

Citrus Heights Police Department will be conducting DUI Saturation Patrols during Super Bowl Weekend Feb 11 and Feb 12. These officers will be looking for drivers suspected of being under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs.

“We want the football fans in our community to enjoy Super Bowl festivities, but we also want responsible drivers on our roads,” Sergeant Kane Kissam said. “Before you grab a drink, make sure your game plan includes scheduling a ride-share or designating a sober driver. Choosing a safer way to go is something we can all root for.”

Citrus Heights Police Department reminds the public that alcohol is not the only substance that impairs. Marijuana, prescription medications, and over-the-counter drugs may also impair your ability to drive safely. Do your research and understand how certain drugs may affect you.
