COMMITTEE AND PROJECT REPORTS

1. PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT Dave
Three projects still underway with one new project, Irwin’s Recycling, proposed.
2. National Night Out 8/1/2023 Bill
Preparations are underway, with the emphasis on children and families.
3. Safe Streets Meeting: Bill and Kathy attended and discovered it takes lots of time and paperwork to meet the demands for new sidewalks, but we will work on getting one on Villa Oak.
4. City Council will discuss forming a committee to look into having a Citrus Heights School District.
5. Neighborhood Garage Sale 4/29 and 4/30
6. Pet Waste Bags/Garbage Cans have been added to the Auburn walking trail.
7. Citrus Heights Marching Band – CHASEN has submitted a letter of support for building an outdoor theater at Rusch Park.
8. May Meeting 5/16/2023 – Josh Hoover, California Assembly Representative

PROGRAM/PRESENTATION –Mike Rutledge, Citrus Heights Police Representative, Drone Pilot

*Mr. Rutledge is the pilot instructor for CHPD, very informative.

*You should have a have certificate to fly, renewable every 2 years.

*You can fly over private property, but not with a camera (officers need probable cause for camera use).

*You can only fly up to 400 feet, otherwise very few restrictions.

*The CHPD has deployed drones 60 times in the last 6 months.

*CHPD drones have cameras, night vision and a PA system.

Fun Demonstration Outside

Remember Josh Hoover will be at our general meeting, May 16, 2023!

Recording Secretary DeAun Deckwa 4/21/2023.
